DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper content of an abstract of the disclosure.

A patent abstract is a concise statement of the technical disclosure of the patent and should include that which is new in the art to which the invention pertains. If the patent is of a basic nature, the entire technical disclosure may be new in the art, and the abstract should be directed to the entire disclosure. If the patent is in the nature of an improvement in an old apparatus, process, product, or composition, the abstract should include the technical disclosure of the improvement. In certain patents, particularly those for compounds and compositions, wherein the process for making and/or the use thereof are not obvious, the abstract should set forth a process for making and/or use thereof. If the new technical disclosure involves modifications or alternatives, the abstract should mention by way of example the preferred modification or alternative.

The abstract should not refer to purported merits or speculative applications of the invention and should not compare the invention with the prior art.

Where applicable, the abstract should include the following:

- (1) if a machine or apparatus, its organization and operation;
- (2) if an article, its method of making;
- (3) if a chemical compound, its identity and use;
- (4) if a mixture, its ingredients;
- (5) if a process, the steps.

Extensive mechanical and design details of apparatus should not be given.

This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

2. As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:
- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
 - (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
 - (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
 - (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
 - (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
 - (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
 - (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
 - (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
 - (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
 - (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
 - (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
 - (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claim 1 recited a method of automatically including one or more context related links in association with scene data content, characterized in that the method includes the steps of: (a) providing a recording apparatus (10) including: (i) data storing means (100) for reading and/or writing data content; (ii) sensing means (70) for sensing audio and/or visual subject matter from a scene (FS) and generating corresponding scene data content; (iii) identifying means (50, 60) for use in identifying a spatial location of the apparatus (10) in proximity of the scene (FS) and/or an identity of the scene (FS); (iv) computing means (30) for coordinating operation of the data storing means (100), the sensing means (70) and the identifying means (50, 60); (b) arranging for the data storing means (100) to include link data susceptible to being invoked to associate one or more spatial locations (FS) and/or scene identities with corresponding linkable data content; (c) activating the apparatus (10) in proximity of a desired scene (FS) and receiving audio and/or visual subject matter therefrom to generate corresponding desired scene data content; (d) using the identifying means (50, 60) to determine a spatial location of the apparatus (FS) in proximity of the desired scene and/or an identity of the desired scene (FS); (e) identifying one or more links (410) in the link data associated with the spatial location and/or identity determined in step (d) and recording them automatically together in the storing means (100) with at least one of the desired scene data content derived from step (c) and the spatial location and/or identity from step (d), wherein the one or more links are concurrently and/or subsequently susceptible to being invoked to include corresponding linkable data content with the scene data to generate final composite data content.

The specification should disclose three independent separate embodiments for each high lighted.

Further claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. Because claim 16 recite the same high lighted limitations in claim 1.

Further more claims 4, 14 and 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. Because the recite the phrase "and/or" in claim language.

Yet further claims 2-3, 5-13 are also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because they are depended to rejected claims.
